He holds NRA, DCJS and Federal Law Enforcement firearms instructor certifications. Mr. Watson has served on several law enforcement S.W.A.T. Teams and with his experience in firearms training and real world operations, you will be exposed to critical information for carrying a firearm for personal safety.

This course is designed around the CCW holder and how to defend yourself if threatened with lethal force while in a vehicle. The techniques taught can apply to a patrol officer in their cruiser as much as to the private citizen heading home from work.
